We aim to make the month of January the record breaker for bargain giving. Thousands of dollars worth of high grade merchandise will be slaughtered to make room for the spring stock and to combine our two stores.

The Dalrymple Store's Sale of White

Everything in White Goods at Greatly Reduced Prices

The announcement of the January sale of white no longer comes as a surprise. Quite the reverse, it is news, eagerly awaited by hundreds of women throughout the country, of the occurrence of a store keeping event. An occasion famous for distributing hundreds of the best muslin underwear garments women ever wore, at the lowest prices women ever paid for underwear of like quality. Twice a year we hold these sales, January and June. Instead of waiting to buy white things, women have learned to attend our white sales in January, and pick from full stocks, gathered especially for the occasion. We are not content with the effort of our previous sales of white, each sale must be better than the one before, in magnitude of selling, and the beauty and excellence of the garments. Not only muslin underwear, but everything white will be sold at reduced prices. Everything will be ready tomorrow morning. Read our ads in the daily papers.

Women easily recognize the many points of superiority of garments shown by us in comparison with those shown elsewhere. No room for details. Can't picture the garments in cold type. You must come and see to appreciate this sale of white.

DIED.

BARKER.—At the Salem Hospital, Sunday, December 28, 1903, at 1 o'clock, William S. Barker, age 73 years.

Deceased was an old pioneer, and has held several public offices in this county. At one time he was deputy sheriff, and was also marshal of this city. He leaves one son, who lives in Walla Walla, Washington, and a niece, Mrs. O. D. Hutton, of Portland, to mourn his death. The burial will take place tomorrow in the I. O. O. F. cemetery, at 10 o'clock.

WEEKS.—At the Salem Hospital, Saturday, December 26, 1903, at 7:30 a. m., Horace B. Weeks, aged 81 years, 9 months and 12 days, of heart failure.

Deceased was born in Sheldon, New York, March 14, 1822. He was the father of five sons, who survive him, George W. Weeks, of this city; one residing in Ohio, one in Missouri, one in Kansas, and another in Illinois. Besides these he leaves a wide circle of friends to mourn his death.

In 1899 he came to Oregon, and made his home with his son, Geo. W. Weeks, in whose family he spent his last days in peaceful retirement.

Mr. Weeks was a man of fine character, of great industry, who wanted what was right, and had not an enemy in the world.

The funeral was conducted from the Weeks' home on 12th street, the pastor of the Congregational church conducting the services, and burial took place at River View cemetery.

Valuable Sign Stolen.

Some freak or thief or thirsty hobo lifted the gold watch and spectacle sign from its hook in front of the C. H. Hinges jewelry store last night, and carried it off. The police are on the track of the gilded insignia and will return it with the depredator if possible.

Van Houten Captured.

Portland, Dec. 28.—David Van Houten, who shot and killed Albert Young last night, was captured in his barn at Montavilla this morning. He made no resistance, but claims that Young despoiled his home.

NEW TODAY.

Wanted.—A good girl for general housework. Inquire at 485 Court street.

BORN.

WEST.—At the family home, 397 Waller street, Salem, Ore., December 28, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. West, a daughter.

The first locomotives weighed three to five tons. An imported English locomotive weighing 10 tons was too heavy. Twenty-five engines of that day would make one of today. Fifty years ago a train load of 200 tons was heavy. Now loads of 2000 to 2500 tons are handled.

The largest single engine used at the St. Louis exposition will be an 8,000 horse power steam turbine—the largest yet in use. The largest steam engine in the Paris exposition was 4000 horse power.
